

Program

ENHR 2018 Workshop 21: Residential Context of Health

Ekonomikum, Room K312 (Sune Carlsson-rummet)

Wednesday, 27 June 11.15 – 12.45

Workshop Session 1

Introduction to the workshop – Emma Baker (University of Adelaide, Australia)

High-density living and residential satisfaction: How juveniles in Hong Kong experience their residential environments – Pu Hoa (Hong Kong Baptist University, China)

Discussant: Sylvia Jansen

The impact of earthquakes on residential wellbeing: The relationship between place attachment, risk perception, psychological distress and relocation – Sylvia Jansen (Delft University of Technology, the Netherlands)

Discussant: Lisa Garnham

Green cleaning education in the community: Reducing indoor pollutants and creating healthier homes one workshop at a time – Pamela Turner, Kristen Sumpter and Keishon Thomas (University of Georgia, USA)

Discussant: Emma Baker

Wednesday, 27 June 13.45 – 15.15

Workshop Session 2

A framework for the role of residential contexts for the production of inequalities in healthy child development – James Dunn (McMaster University, Canada)

Discussant: Amy Clair

Housing and health: New evidence using biomarker data – Amy Clair (University of Essex, UK)

Discussant: James Dunn

Thursday, 28 June 11.00 – 12.30

Workshop Session 3

Housing as a social determinant of health: Exploring the impacts on tenants of different models of housing provision and support – Lisa Garnham (Glasgow Centre for Population Health, UK) and Steve Rolfe (University of Stirling, UK)

Discussant: Phil Mason

Exploring intergenerational inequalities in housing and health – Rebecca Bentley
(University of Melbourne, Australia)

Discussant: Chul Sohn

Friday, 29 June	11.00 – 12.30	Workshop Session 4
-----------------	---------------	--------------------

More than just climate: Socio-economic determinants of cold houses – Lyrian Daniel, Emma Baker (both University of Adelaide, Australia), Andrew Beer (University of South Australia) and Ngoc Thien Anh Pham (University of Adelaide, Australia)

Discussant: Pamela Turner

Can housing price be an alternative to census-based deprivation index? An evaluation based on multilevel modeling – Chul Sohn (Gangneung-Wonju National University, Korea) and Tomoki Nakaya (Tohoku University, Japan)

Discussant: Pu Hoa

Friday, 29 June	13.30 – 15.00	Workshop Session 5
-----------------	---------------	--------------------

No papers are scheduled for this workshop session.

Friday, 29 June	15.30 – 17.00	Workshop Session 6
-----------------	---------------	--------------------

No papers are scheduled for this workshop session.