

Program

ENHR 2018 Workshop 7: Housing and Refugees

Ekonomikum, Room B115

Wednesday, 27 June 11.15 – 12.45

Workshop Session 1

Introduction to the workshop – Jennifer Duyne Barenstein (ETH Centre for Research on Architecture, Society and the Built Environment, Switzerland), Silvia Mugnano (University of Milano Bicocca, Italy), Eli Støa (Norwegian University of Science and Technology, Norway) and Bence Komlósi (Architecture for Refugees, Switzerland)

Global housing support strategies for displaced people and their relevance for refugees in Europe – Jennifer Duyne Barenstein (ETH Centre for Research on Architecture, Society and the Built Environment, Switzerland)

Identifying pathways for social inclusion of refugees in social and cooperative housing – Mariel Whelan (European Social Housing Observatory, Belgium)

What can cities do? - When meeting unprecedented influx of refugees – Susanne Sørholt (OsloMet, Norway)

Wednesday, 27 June 13.45 – 15.15

Workshop Session 2

The quest for refugees' right to adequate housing: An analysis of Syrians' housing challenges in Naba'a, Beirut – JenniferDuyne Barenstein (ETH Centre for Research on Architecture, Society and the Built Environment, Switzerland)

A geography of housing in war-time Syria: A comparison of the governance coalitions and socio-spatial outcomes of two reconstruction projects – Barend Wind (Groningen University, the Netherlands)

Attitudes towards refugees and refugee accommodations – Jürgen Friedrichs (University of Cologne, Germany)

Thursday, 28 June 11.00 – 12.30

Workshop Session 3

Reception facilities as home-like spaces? Lures and pitfalls of "beautification" in public housing for asylum seekers and refugees – Paolo Boccagni (University of Trento, Italy)

"After belonging": A study of architectural and infrastructure intervention projects for asylum seekers in Norway – Eli Støa (Norwegian University of Science and Technology, Norway)

Friday, 29 June	11.00 – 12.30	Workshop Session 4
-----------------	---------------	--------------------

Asylum seekers and refugees in Italy: A case study on the local model of social inclusion in the Tuscany region – Lorenzo Nasi (University of Siena, Italy)

Making home in Sabaudia: Sikhs' housing strategies in the province of Latina, Italy – Jennifer Duyn Barenstein (ETH Centre for Research on Architecture, Society and the Built Environment, Switzerland)

Hosting refugees and asylum seekers in Milan: A resilient local policy model – Giuliana Costa (Politecnico di Milan, Italy)

Friday, 29 June	13.30 – 15.00	Workshop Session 5
-----------------	---------------	--------------------

When refugees return to their homes: Findings and lessons from evaluation – Luigi Cuna (Council of Europe Development Bank, France)

Housing entry pathways of refugees in a city of social housing – Case study Vienna/Austria – Anita Aigner (Vienna University of Technology, Austria)

Lampedusa – One of the main refugees' Italian frontline in Europe: Exploring the coping strategies of the local community– Silvia Mugnano (University of Milano Bicocca, Italy)

Friday, 29 June	15.30 – 17.00	Workshop Session 6
-----------------	---------------	--------------------

How to use “serious games” to produce and communicate policies: A dialogue between architects and game scholars – Valerio Perna (Sapienza University, Italy)

Housing in the Age of Migration and Uncertainty – Merve Kilicbay (Istanbul Technical University, Turkey)

The effect of refugee accommodation on the local housing market – Lea Eilers (RWI-Leibniz Institute for Economic Research, Germany)